THE BREWSTER TRUST – Memorandum of Understanding with BFA

THE BREWSTER TRUST signed today a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Barbados Football Association (BFA) for the next three years to co-operate developing, funding and supporting several projects like restructuring, strategic approaches or even communication tools.

Following the trust's mission statement to promote, develop and improve football in Barbados the MoU is a first visible step of partnership with the BFA, the governing body of Association Football in Barbados.

The MoU contains the general framework of co-operation and partnership like to act in the interests of domestic football and in accordance with the existing framework of BFA, CUF, CONCACAF and FIFA, to safeguard the balanced evolution of Barbadian football domestically and internationally in accordance with the principles of solidarity and integrity of competition or to ensure that the views of the stakeholders like the clubs are properly represented in the decision-making process in Barbadian football structures.
