Focus children

After a coaching course for football coaches with 46 registered local coaches, 137 registered campers of the age group five to nine years started their ten days on 9th July 2012. The multifarious coaching sessions from 9.00am to 3.30pm daily include competitions, basic passing techniques, dribbling and turning at speed, slalom, turns, control and heading sessions including aerial control, using various parts of the body, basic techniques of shooting.

Axel Bernhardt, CEO of THE BREWSTER TRUST, states: "We are impressed with the feedback we got from the children and the parents. We had 137 campers including 21 from last year, 8% girls; in average we had every day 128 participants or 93.58%, 105 campers or 76.64% attended every single day. We have to thank the parents for their confidence in our organisation but especially the daily transportation and punctuality. We also have to thank the committed local coaches who supported us over the last two weeks."

"Hall of Fame"
